ORDER:

In the G.O. first read above, orders were issued introducing the “Poultry Development Policy 2016-20” with a view to make Andhra Pradesh the highest egg and poultry meat producing State in the country through sustainable growth for economic prosperity of the farmers and nutritional security of the people.

2. In the G.O second read above the Finance Department have issued Budget Release Orders for an amount of Rs 62.07 Crores towards interest subvention to the Poultry Farmers for the year 2016-17. In the reference third read above Government have accorded administrative sanction for an amount of Rs 62.07 Crores as additional funds in relaxation of Treasury Control and Quarterly Regulation Orders pending provision of funds by obtaining supplementary grant at appropriate time during current financial year 2017-18 towards Interest subvention to the Poultry Farmers for the year 2016-17.

3. In the references fourth and sixth cited the Director of Animal Husbandry, Andhra Pradesh, Vijayawada has submitted proposals to include the Hatcheries and Breeding Farms under the Interest Subvention Scheme sanctioned by Government to encourage breeders to produce good quality chicks and also to attract new entrepreneurs for establishing new Hatcheries in Andhra Pradesh State which will ultimately help to promote the double digit growth in the Poultry Sector. He further reported that the chicks and the breeder farms are the basic raw ingredients required for poultry farming and to produce chicks and parents stock, hatcheries and breeding farms are also required in the state to encourage poultry farmers. If the Hatcheries and Breeding farms are not supported under the scheme the interest burden in connection with production of chicks and parent stock will be transferred to the poultry farmers which may influence the growth of the sector. The financial implications to extend 4.5% Interest subsidy to the Poultry breeding farms for the year 2016-17 is worked out to Rs 1,38,86,542/-.

4. The Director of Animal Husbandry, Andhra Pradesh, Vijayawada has proposed the following Guidelines for sanction of interest subsidy to the Hatcheries and Breeding farms:

- i. The poultry breeder/hatchery farmers claiming interest subsidy should establish/ have established the poultry breeding farm/hatchery in the territory of Andhra Pradesh.

- ii. The Poultry breeding Farm/hatchery should be in functional stage at the time of physical verification of the Farm.
- iii. The existing Poultry breeding Farm/hatchery should be physically inspected by the Departmental functionary and certify its existence.
- iv. The Andhra Pradesh Poultry Farmers Federation should also endorse the applications/claims of the Poultry breeder/hatchery farmers for interest subsidy.
- v. An affidavit duly notarized shall be submitted by the poultry breeder farmer concerned to the effect that the interest subsidy claimed from the Government will be returned by the Poultry breeder/hatchery Farmer in the event if the subsidy claimed is noticed in eligible at a later date.
- vi. The claim preferred from the Government shall be incorporated by Poultry breeder/hatchery Farmer in the relevant ITR (Income Tax Return) filed subsequently.
- vii. The Poultry breeder/hatchery farmer shall claim interest subsidy proportionately to the extent of poultry breeding farm/hatchery established in the territory of Andhra Pradesh in the event a combined loan is availed by the poultry breeder/hatchery farmer both for the poultry breeding Farm / hatchery established in Andhra Pradesh and also in other states from a single from a single bank.

5. Government after careful examination decided to extend the interest subsidy scheme to the Hatcheries and Breeding farms on par with poultry farmers duly following the above guidelines. The financial commitment of Rs 1,38,86,542/- Involved in this scheme has to be met from out of the amount sanctioned vide G.Os second and third read above.
